

I am outraged that Sinclair Broadcasting would stoop to pretending that showing "Stolen Honor: Wounds That Never Heal" is a news event and thus protected from equal time provisions.

Station owners and managers are free to back any candidates they choose, but using their corporation's resources to support any single candidate violates basic principles of democratic government, regardless of who that candidate might be.

I sincerely hope the FEC and the FCC act to prevent this travesty.

Chris Hunter